

Activity: Family Vision and Expectations

What is your vision for your family?
What expectations do you have for your family	What do these expectations mean in terms of what your family members should and should not do?
In what ways might your expectations vary across circumstances?
How will you communicate and teach these expectations to your family?	